Prime Hires Arthur Palileo as Vice President of Enterprise Program Management and Integration

ST. PAUL – Prime Therapeutics (Prime), a thought leader in pharmacy benefit management, announced today that Arthur Palileo has joined the organization as Vice President of Enterprise Program Management and Integration. In Arthur's new role, he will be responsible for leading the Project Management Office (PMO) and new client integration departments that drive and implement enterprise-wide initiatives and integration of new Blue Cross and Blue Shield clients.

Arthur will champion the standardization and alignment of project management best practices, tools and templates across the organization. “We are excited Arthur will be spearheading our governance processes around client implementation and enterprise project management”, says Kim Mageau, Chief Operating Officer. “His experience leading large-scale strategic initiatives will be valuable as Prime continues to grow.”

Arthur comes to Prime from RSM McGladrey where he developed RSM McGladrey's business strategy and product offerings for program management and technology management outsourcing services. While there, he also led the review and revision of the IT consulting project management practices and procedures.

Prior to RSM McGladrey, Arthur commenced and led the program management office responsible for enterprise-wide strategic initiatives at the corporate level for Alliant TechSystems (ATK). Arthur has held a variety of leadership positions in information technology and management consulting organizations leading business integration, application development, project management and enterprise resource planning (ERP) implementations across a wide variety of industries.
