Since joining Prime, I’ve seen tremendous integrity in action and a powerful commitment to ethical behavior. I can say with confidence that we are doing good work, important work, and doing it in a way that we can all be proud of.

Most of the time we know intuitively what the right thing is. But this is a complicated business with complex relationships. Prime and the PBM industry are experiencing enormous changes that bring us into new territory with still more complexity. No matter your role at Prime, you are faced with making decisions every day.

The Code of Conduct is a valuable reference tool when you have decisions to make. Our compliance department is available to provide additional assistance whenever you have questions or concerns.

I promise you that I’ll do everything I can to uphold our reputation for honesty, integrity and ethical behavior in the market. Thank you for doing the same.

Sincerely,

Ken Paulus
President and Chief Executive Officer
Prime's reputation as a trustworthy partner is built on consistent ethical behavior by our employees. As Prime's chief compliance officer, I am deeply committed to supporting and empowering you in the decisions you make and the actions you take to advance our ethical culture.

The Code reinforces our commitment to ethics. It provides all of us with information to make decisions and take actions that align with our values of integrity, respect and honesty. Sometimes decision making is not straightforward and you may need support. The Ethical Decisions Guide on the back page will help you reach an ethical decision. The compliance department is another resource and is available to assist you when you're unsure what to do.

We're all responsible for understanding the Code and applying it to ourselves and to those around us at work. Thank you for being a vital part of our culture of ethics.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Rene Treberg
Chief Compliance Officer
How we do business
Ethical conduct is at the core of how we do business.

At Prime, we conduct our business ethically and consistent with applicable laws and regulations.

Each of us is essential to our culture of ethics. You contribute through the decisions you make and the actions you take every day. This includes making ethical decisions and acting consistently with our values of integrity, honesty and respect.

Being ethical is a part of who we are and how we behave.

Purpose of the Code
The Code is your guide for doing business at Prime ethically and consistent with applicable laws, regulations and company policies. While the Code cannot answer every question, it lays the foundation for ethical business practices and shows you where to go when the answer isn’t clear.
CODE OF CONDUCT

INTRODUCTION

Your responsibilities
The Code applies to all employees, contractors, officers and directors. We all have a responsibility to:

• ACT ETHICALLY
  Live Prime’s values of integrity, honesty and respect.

• FOLLOW THE LAW
  Understand and follow the laws and other requirements that apply to your job and our business.

• FOLLOW THE CODE AND POLICIES
  Read the Code and know the policies that apply to you and your job.

• ASK FOR HELP
  When the answer is unclear, ask for guidance before taking action.

• SPEAK UP
  Voice compliance and ethics concerns right away.

Compliance with the Code is a condition of your employment. You are personally responsible for being familiar with the Code.

Additional responsibilities for managers
If you supervise others, you have additional responsibilities.

• BE AN EXAMPLE
  Model Prime’s values and commitment to compliance.

• SET EXPECTATIONS
  Reinforce the importance of compliance and ethics.

• FOSTER OPEN COMMUNICATION
  Make ethics conversations part of your routine.

• UNDERSTAND YOUR RESOURCES
  Know who to contact for compliance and ethics guidance.

• TAKE ACTION
  Address compliance and ethics concerns immediately.

• ENSURE NO RETALIATION
  Never retaliate or allow others to retaliate for good faith reporting.
CODE OF CONDUCT

INTRODUCTION

Reporting methods
There are several ways to ask questions or to report a compliance or ethics concern. All good faith reports can be made without fear of retaliation or retribution. You can contact:

• Your supervisor or manager
• Human resources
• Privacy and Ethics Officer
• Chief Compliance Officer
• Legal department

REPORTING A CONCERN:

• Describe the situation in detail and how it occurred.
• Share the names of individuals involved.
• Provide dates when and where the events occurred.
• State whether you witnessed the situation or if someone shared it with you.
• Identify any relevant documents and their location.
CODE OF CONDUCT

INTRODUCTION

Anti-retaliation
Prime strictly prohibits any unlawful retaliation against anyone who:

• Reports concerns in good faith
• Participates in a company investigation
• Refuses to participate in suspected improper activity
• Engages in other legally protected activity

You have a duty to bring all compliance and ethics concerns forward. You will not be disciplined or terminated for concerns reported in good faith, even if those concerns are not, in the end, compliance and ethics violations.

For more information, see Prime’s Anti-Retaliation/Non-Retribution Compliance Policy.

Investigations
Prime takes all reports of alleged violations seriously. We investigate reports of improper behavior and violations of the law, the Code or our policies as required. We take prompt and appropriate actions based on investigation findings. If you are asked to participate in an investigation, you are required to cooperate.

Corrective action
As you perform your job, you are expected to follow the Code, our policies and all applicable laws and regulations. Failure to do so may result in corrective action, such as:

• Performance counseling or re-training
• Warnings (verbal, written and final written warnings)
• Performance improvement plan
• Suspension
• Termination

Corrective action does not need to be taken in any particular order and may include any or all of the steps outlined above.

For more information, see Prime’s Performance Counseling and Corrective Action Policy.
We all have a responsibility to protect Prime's assets. They should only be used for valid business purposes.

Prime's Information

Prime’s confidential information is important to our business. We are all responsible for protecting Prime's confidential information from theft, misuse and improper disclosure. As a general rule, assume that all information is confidential, proprietary and non-public. Don’t share it or talk with anyone other than Prime employees about it—and then, only as needed for performing your duties.

If you no longer work at Prime, you may not use, keep or share any of Prime’s confidential information.

What you need to do

- Access only the information necessary to do your job.
- When discussing confidential information, pay attention to your environment and be mindful of others who could overhear your conversations.
- Do not leave confidential information in a place where unauthorized people have access to it.

CODE OF CONDUCT

ASSETS AND INFORMATION

Competitor and third party information
You may come in contact with confidential information about other companies. You should respect the confidential and proprietary information of other companies, even if that information is received as part of your work for Prime.

CAN USE
Publicly available information, such as non-confidential information from industry experts and other third parties.

CANNOT USE
Confidential information from a previous employer in your work at Prime. You also cannot use lying, deceit, misrepresentation, invasive techniques or unauthorized access to obtain information.

For more information, see Prime’s Information of Competitors and Third Parties Policy.
CODE OF CONDUCT

ASSETS AND INFORMATION

External communication
We shape Prime’s reputation by what we do and say every day. Our reputation is affected by what people hear about us, either directly or through the media. We must make sure our external communications are coordinated and consistent.

What you need to do
Contact Prime’s public relations team if you are approached:
- By the media
- By a vendor for a testimonial
- By a professional industry newsletter, website or similar publication for an interview

Situations that require prior written approval:
- Representing that you are authorized to speak on behalf of Prime or that Prime has reviewed and approved your content
- Posting photographs or videos of the non-public areas of Prime’s premises
- Sharing financial or operational information
- Using Prime’s brand (for example, logo or graphics) in a way that suggests that you are representing Prime

For more information, see Prime’s Media Relations Policy.

Social media
Your social media activity is subject to Prime’s policies. Those policies apply when you are posting, blogging or tweeting about anything relating to or referencing Prime even if it’s outside of designated work hours and from your personal device.

When posting on your personal social media accounts, you can share that you work for Prime. You may only state that you are speaking for Prime if you have received approval to do so.

For more information, see Prime’s Social Media Policy.
CODE OF CONDUCT

HIPAA and privacy
We are all required to follow the privacy and security rules under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and all related regulations. HIPAA has strict requirements around the use and disclosure of protected health information (PHI). You can only access or use the minimum PHI that is reasonably necessary for you to do your job.

What you need to do
- Keep PHI confidential.
- Only look at PHI or use it if necessary to do your job.
- Report potential HIPAA violations to the privacy department right away.

For more information, see Prime’s Privacy Policies.

Data security
You play a very important role in protecting Prime’s information technology systems and data.

What you need to do
- Keep your user ID and passwords private (don’t write them down or share them).
- Lock your computer when leaving it unattended.
- Don’t leave your laptop or device unattended in public areas.
- Only use Prime-approved and supplied portable media.
- Only use the Prime-approved mobile email application.

For more information, see Prime’s Information Security Policies.

Computer use
Any data created on Prime’s computers is Prime’s property. This includes data you create, receive, send or store on a Prime device. We monitor our computer systems and may read and copy any files or data on any computer at any time without prior notice. You can use Prime’s computers for personal use, but should not expect personal documents to be considered private—even if they’re marked private or confidential. You cannot engage in any activity that is illegal while using a Prime computer system.

For more information, see Prime’s Acceptable Use Policy.

ASSETS AND INFORMATION
Email and instant messaging
The purpose of email and instant messaging is to facilitate business communications. Instant messaging should not be used for formal business communications or to document business decisions.

CAN USE
Occasional personal use of Prime’s email and phone systems is allowed, as long as you use good judgment. Your personal use should be consistent with the Code and Prime’s policies and procedures. Personal use should not interfere with your work.

CANNOT USE
You cannot access personal cloud storage and email services (for example: Dropbox, Google Docs, iCloud, Gmail and Hotmail) on Prime equipment. You are not allowed to use personal email applications (for example: Gmail) to send or store Prime information.

_for more information, see Prime’s Data Transmission and Email Policy._

Enterprise video resources
You are encouraged to use enterprise video resources accessed through your corporate device(s). Video resources should not be used to document business decisions, except in approved and limited cases.

_for more information, see Prime’s Enterprise Video Policy._

Software licensing
Most of the software we use at Prime is protected by licensing agreements and copyright laws. You are required to adhere to all licensing requirements. Downloading or duplicating software outside the terms the vendor sets may result in personal penalties and/or liability for Prime.
Data and Business Records
Prime uses governance controls throughout the data life cycle of creation, distribution, use, placement, retention and deletion for all of Prime's data, including Business Records.

BUSINESS RECORDS
Business Records are defined as the final and complete version of information which has a long-term retention obligation provided by law or regulation and meet at least one of the three following criteria:
- Provides evidence of meeting legal obligations
- Supports business transactions
- Documents a business decision

→ Creation
Data should be created for specific business purposes. You should only create data when necessary due to the nature of Prime's business and the personnel, monetary and governance resources needed to create new data. Any data created on Prime owned equipment is owned by Prime, including data you help to create. Data should be accurate, factual and objective. Fraudulent or illegal activity of any kind is not permitted.

→ Placement
All data, including Business Records, must be placed in the approved storage location for retention. For example:
- Store work in progress data to your home (H) drive.
- Save data to a secured department folder if needed for collaborative purposes.
- Maintain paper Business Records at a Prime facility. If you are working from home, discuss with your manager whether you need digital access to the data.
- Consult the RIM department for corporate databases.

Prime can remediate or delete the data if not placed in the appropriate storage location.

→ Deletion
All data must be deleted in accordance with the Data Deletion Schedule. You must retain indefinitely all data subject to a legal records hold until instructed otherwise by the legal department.

For more information, see Prime’s Records and Information Management (RIM) Policies or contact RIM@primetherapeutics.com.
Prime supports your right to vote and be active in the political process. If you are politically active, remember:

- Political contributions or fundraising tickets are considered personal expenses and cannot be included on a Prime expense report.
- Use of Prime property, facilities or employee time for any political activity is only allowed when you obtain prior written approval from the VP of Government Affairs or the General Counsel.
- Solicitation or distribution of literature for political campaigning or lobbying purposes is strictly prohibited during working time.

For more information, see Prime’s Non-Solicitation and Distribution Policy.
CODE OF CONDUCT

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Each of us must act in the best interest of Prime.

A conflict of interest is when a person or company has a financial, business or other relationship that may conflict with the best interests of the company they work for or their assigned duties. You are required to report all potential conflicts. However, not all conflicts require any action beyond disclosure.

CONFLICTS CAN ARISE IN MANY WAYS. COMMON EXAMPLES MAY INCLUDE:

- Outside part-time employment in the health care industry
- A family member with a financial interest in a company that does business with Prime
- A family member who works for a company that competes with Prime
- Investment in a company that provides services to Prime (this does not include investment in mutual funds)
- A second job that interferes with your ability to perform your responsibilities at Prime

What you need to do

- Always conduct yourself in a way that prevents even the appearance of a conflict between your personal interests and those of Prime.
- Complete the annual conflict of interest disclosure form.
- Promptly disclose any potential or actual conflicts during the rest of the year. Even the appearance of a conflict must be disclosed.

For more information, see Prime’s Conflict of Interest Policy: Employees and Contractors.
Ethical relationships
We may purchase goods or services from a supplier who also buys services from us. This is normal and acceptable as long as it remains free from any form of pressure. This means suppliers must not be asked to buy our products or services if they want to become or continue to be a Prime supplier. Also, we should not be asked to do the same by suppliers.

Business courtesies
Prime may give or receive business courtesies to build or strengthen relationships with business partners. Business courtesies may also be given or received from potential business partners. Business courtesies should never be illegal or violate Prime's commitment to diversity and mutual respect.
EXAMPLES OF BUSINESS COURTESIES

Gifts
• You may give or receive gifts up to $100 per occurrence (may not exceed $150 per year to or from the same business partner).
• Gifts of cash are not allowed in any amount (cash equivalents, such as gift cards, are also not allowed).
• Never give, receive or ask for a gift in return for business.

Business meals and entertainment
• You may provide or accept a meal valued up to $100.
• You may provide or accept entertainment valued up to $150 ($250 max for food and entertainment per person per event).
• Both you and the business partner must attend the meal and/or entertainment event.
• Business discussions must occur during the meal and/or entertainment event.
• The location should be appropriate for business conversation.

Travel
• You may provide or accept travel for business-related activities where a service or benefit is being offered.
• Accept travel only if others providing the same service are treated equally.

BUSINESS COURTESIES MAY NOT BE PROVIDED TO OR FROM

• Government employees and agents
• Members
• Prescribers
• Pharmacies
• Pharmaceutical manufacturers

In addition, giving and receiving honoraria is not permitted.

In limited circumstances, an exception may be appropriate. The Business Courtesies (Gifts, Meals, Entertainment, Travel and Honoraria) Policy provides details regarding the exception process.

For more information, see Prime’s Travel, Meals and Entertainment Expense Reimbursement Policy.

For more information, see Prime’s Business Courtesies (Gifts, Meals, Entertainment, Travel and Honoraria) Policy.
Formulary development
Prime makes decisions about the pharmaceutical products that we place on our coverage recommended drug lists (formularies) through two committees: our independent National Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee (P&T Committee) and our National Business Committee (Business Committee).

The P&T Committee evaluates drug efficacy and safety and other clinical considerations. The Business Committee approves the formularies based on clinical considerations along with cost and utilization data.

Utilization management coverage decisions
Utilization management decision-making is based on appropriateness of care and service and existence of coverage. Prime does not specifically reward practitioners or other individuals for issuing denials of coverage. Financial incentives for utilization decision makers do not encourage decisions that result in underutilization.

Improper payments
At Prime, you can’t pay customers or prospective customers to get their business. Also, you can’t use Prime’s funds or assets for any illegal or unethical purpose. This applies to employees or anyone working on Prime’s behalf.

Antitrust
Antitrust laws promote fair competition and protect consumers from unfair business practices.

In general, antitrust laws are designed to prevent one business from gaining an unfair advantage and forcing other businesses out of the marketplace.

We are committed to complying with antitrust laws. You are required to adhere to fair competition and business practices and avoid even the appearance of anti-competitive conduct. Penalties for antitrust violations can be severe. Violations of federal and state laws may result in civil and criminal liability.

⚠️ For more information, see Prime’s Antitrust Policy.
CODE OF CONDUCT
WORKING WITH SUPPLIERS AND CUSTOMERS

Price fixing
The pricing of our products and services is one of the most important decisions Prime makes. Pricing decisions are proprietary information and cannot be made in collaboration with our competitors.

In addition, you are required to avoid conduct that creates the appearance of price fixing.

This means you can’t exchange, consult, discuss, create or participate in any understanding, agreement, plan or scheme with any competitor about:

• Prime’s prices or competitors’ prices
• Price policies
• Fees
• Terms or conditions of sale of any service or product

It doesn’t matter if these discussions are direct or implied, formal or informal, oral or written.

What you need to do
You may attend conferences, seminars or professional gatherings with competitors. You are required to avoid or remove yourself from any discussions about pricing and fees when a competitor is involved.

Market allocation and other agreements restraining trade
As a general rule, certain types of understandings or agreements between businesses may be suspect or even unlawful. These include agreements:

• Not to do business with others
• Not to do business or deal in particular territories that are otherwise authorized by law

This includes agreements that are written or unwritten, formal or informal, understood or implied, or made with a competitor or customer.

Always consult with the legal department before talking about or entering into any agreement not to do business with others or not to do business or deal in particular territories.

Insider trading
We work with clients, vendors and suppliers who are publicly held. Through your role, you might learn material, non-public information about another company, such as merger or divestiture plans, a new product or service offering, or other information that could have an impact on that company’s stock. Information you obtained through your role and work with Prime cannot be used for your personal benefit or to the benefit of anyone else.
INTERACTING WITH THE GOVERNMENT

Special rules apply when working with government officials. We work with a number of employees and representatives from federal, state and local governments. Examples include officials from:

- Office for Civil Rights
- Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS)
- Drug Enforcement Administration
- State departments of insurance and boards of pharmacy
- Office of Inspector General (OIG)
- U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS)
- Center for Consumer Information and Insurance Oversight (CCIIO)

GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS PARTICIPATION

Prime administers the pharmacy benefit for our clients’ Medicare, Medicaid and Health Insurance Marketplace (HIM) products. We are required to follow all applicable federal Medicare, Medicaid and HIM laws and regulations and all applicable state Medicaid and HIM laws and regulations.

In addition, as part of Prime’s participation in government programs, all Prime employees are required to complete the compliance training modules, including fraud, waste and abuse (FWA).

FEP CONTRACT

Prime contracts with the Blue Cross Blue Shield Association (BCBSA) to provide specialty pharmacy services and related pharmacy benefit management services to BCBSA’s Federal Employee Program (FEP). BCBSA’s FEP plan is part of the Federal Employee Health Benefit Program that provides health benefits to many federal government employees and is managed by the U.S. Office of Personnel Management. At Prime, we must follow all laws, regulations and other requirements specific to our FEP contract.
Bribery
You may not personally, or through Prime, give or promise to give anything of value to any government official or agent in order to obtain business or special treatment for Prime.

Anti-kickback laws
A kickback is anything of value given in exchange for improperly obtaining government contracting, or rewarding favorable treatment in connection with government contracting. Kickbacks include the following:

- Money
- Fee
- Commission
- Gift
- Other items of value

All forms of kickbacks are prohibited.

* For more information, see Prime’s Anti-kickback Laws Policy.*

ANTI-KICKBACK STATUTE
A criminal law that prohibits anyone from knowingly or willfully soliciting, receiving, offering or paying compensation in exchange for referrals or the purchase of any item or service that may be paid for in whole or in part by a federal health care program (for example, Medicare or Medicaid).

ANTI-KICKBACK ACT
Prohibits an employee of a government contractor or subcontractor to give, attempt to give, accept or attempt to accept a kickback for the purpose of improperly obtaining government contracting, or rewarding favorable treatment in connection with a government contract or subcontract (for example, FEP). Its purpose is to ensure fair and equal competition and prevent improper favorable treatment in connection with contracts and subcontracts at all tiers.
Individuals or entities excluded from participation in government programs

Individuals and entities that have participated in abuse, fraud or other illegal activities in the past cannot participate in or contract for items or services payable by Medicare, Medicaid or other government programs. This is a government rule.

Prime’s policy is not to employ, contract or work with any individual or entity that the federal or state governments have excluded from participation in government programs or contracts.

Doing business with the U.S. government

As a government contractor or subcontractor, Prime must follow certain rules when doing business with the U.S. government. These rules:

- Apply whether Prime contracts with the government directly or indirectly as a subcontractor through a client
- Are often different from, and may be more restrictive than, the rules that apply to Prime’s commercial business

→ Offering gifts and gratuities. Do not offer gifts or business courtesies to U.S. government employees.

→ Hiring former and current government employees. Many laws restrict the timing of employment discussions between U.S. government employees and government contractors. “Revolving door” restrictions limit the types of activities that some former government personnel can perform in the private sector. You must get approval from the legal department before discussing employment with current government employees.

→ Procurement integrity. During the competitive procurement process, do not ask the government for or obtain certain types of restricted source selection information or contractor bid or proposal information, unless that information is released to all competitors. Source selection information are the criteria a federal agency uses to evaluate bids or proposals.

Prime must confirm that we are authorized to receive information from government employees or third parties, including consultants. If you think you received improper information, contact the legal department.
CODE OF CONDUCT

INTERACTING WITH THE GOVERNMENT

Contingent fees. Do not pay contingent fees to outside consultants. Federal law generally prohibits this because it may lead to attempted or actual exercise of improper influence. Contingent fees include:

- Commissions
- Percentage fees
- Brokerage fees
- Other fees that depend on the success of a person or company in securing a government contract

Suspected, debarred or ineligible contractors. U.S. government contractors and subcontractors are generally prohibited from doing business with companies and individuals who are:

- Debarred
- Suspended
- Proposed for debarment
- Otherwise declared ineligible to receive government contracts

False claims and statements. It is illegal for a government contractor or subcontractor to submit false claims and false statements to the U.S. government. Always provide complete, current, honest and accurate information to the government.

For more information, see Prime’s Federal and State Fraud Laws Policy.

PRIME WILL NOT KNOWINGLY:

Form a new contract with, make a new purchase from, or enter into a new business relationship with any individual or company that is excluded from participation in government programs or contracts.
CODE OF CONDUCT
PROPER ACCOUNTING

We are all responsible for maintaining accurate and complete business and financial records. All accounting transactions must be properly executed and recorded. Our accounting system includes written policies and procedures and an annual financial statement audit by an outside audit firm.

Fraudulent activity is grounds for immediate termination of employment.

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO
- Follow Prime’s accounting policies and U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) if not otherwise explicitly specified.
- Comply with the federal government’s laws and regulations regarding cost accounting and cost charging.
- Ensure financial reports and documents are fair, accurate, timely and understandable.
- Charge labor and materials costs accurately to the appropriate cost center, project time tracking code and/or accounts.
- Work with your finance contacts if you need guidance related to Prime’s financial transactions and related records.

WHAT YOU SHOULDN’T DO
- Improperly influence, manipulate or mislead any audit.
- Interfere with any auditor engaged to perform an independent audit of Prime’s books, records, processes or internal controls.
- Create or maintain secret or unrecorded funds or assets for any purpose.
- Falsify Prime financial records or use Prime corporate assets for inappropriate personal use that does not comply with Prime policies or legal requirements.
- Make records appear as though payments were made to one person when, in fact, they were made to another individual.
- Submit inaccurate expense reports.
- Create any other records that do not accurately reflect the true nature of a transaction.
Accounting practice concerns

If you have accounting practice concerns, you can use the resources on the Reporting Methods page of the Code. You can also contact the chief executive officer or the chief financial officer.

If you have concerns regarding our accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, you may contact the chair of the Compliance and Audit Committee, if you think it is appropriate.
Prime complies with all federal, state and local laws and regulations that ensure workplace safety, employee health and environmental protection. Notify the legal department if you’re contacted by any regulatory or enforcement agency related to workplace safety, employee health or environmental protection.

Equal employment opportunities
Prime is committed to diversity, affirmative action and equal employment opportunities. Prime’s vision is to be a thriving, positive environment where employees are proud to work, diversity is celebrated and all are treated with respect.

Prime provides equal employment opportunities to all persons in all aspects of employment, regardless of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, marital status, familial status, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, public assistance status, membership or activity in a local commission, or any other legally protected class under federal, state or local law.

Prime makes reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities, unless doing so would impose an undue hardship.

For more information, see Prime’s Equal Employment Opportunity Policy.

Violence-free workplace
Prime is committed to providing a safe and healthy work environment that is free from harassment, threats and acts of violence. This includes:

- Threatened violence
- Any type of violent or threatening behavior
- Actual infliction of physical violence
- Possession or use of firearms or other weapons at work

Acts or threats of violence or possession of firearms or any other weapons at Prime is strictly prohibited.

What you need to do
If you are the victim of, or are witness to, conduct that conflicts with a violence-free workplace:

- Immediately report the conduct to a supervisor, manager, corporate security, or human resources.
- Avoid confrontation and follow the reporting procedures in the Workplace Violence Policy.

For more information, see Prime’s Workplace Violence Policy.
Harassment-free workplace
Prime prohibits all forms of unlawful harassment and discrimination and expects employees are treated, and treat others, with respect, dignity and courtesy.

What you need to do
If you see or are subject to possible discrimination or harassment at work, promptly notify human resources, your supervisor or the compliance department, regardless of any attempt to resolve the situation on your own. You can also call the Anonymous Compliance Hotline at 800.474.8651.

For more information, see Prime’s Respect Policy.

For more information, see Prime’s Harassment and Offensive Behavior Policy.

Substance-free workplace
Prime strives to protect the safety, health and well-being of all employees. Prime maintains a workplace free from the use and abuse of drugs and alcohol.

• We require every newly hired employee, as a condition of employment, to consent to and participate in pre-employment drug testing.

• We may also require an employee to be tested during employment if we reasonably suspect an employee is under the influence of drugs or alcohol while at work.

• All employees are required to be free of the influence of drugs and alcohol during work time, while on Prime premises, or when representing Prime.

• We require all non-employees to comply with Prime’s Code of Conduct while performing services for or on behalf of Prime to ensure an alcohol and drug-free workplace.

For more information, see Prime’s Alcohol and Drug-Free Workplace Policy.
Exceptions and amendments
If an exception or amendment of the Code is necessary, contact the chief compliance officer. The Code and the Compliance Program may be updated as needed.

Oversight
The Board of Directors is ultimately responsible for the Compliance Program. They review and approve the Code annually as part of their oversight responsibility.
Do you have an ethical decision to make about your own or someone else’s activity? Before you act, follow these steps:

RULES
- Is it legal?
- Is it consistent with Prime’s Code of Conduct?
- Does it comply with Prime’s policies and procedures?

VALUES
- Does it support Prime’s values and culture?
- Is it consistent with the values of honesty, integrity and respect?
- Would it meet the expectations of Prime’s clients and members?

IMPACT
- Would you have no concerns if this were in the news or became a social media post?
- Would you feel comfortable explaining your decision to your family?

The decision to move forward seems appropriate. You may choose to confirm your decision with your manager or the Compliance Department.
